Inland Real Estate Network, Inc.

is an Illinois state licensed real estate company which holds the licenses of real estate salespersons and brokers who want their licenses to remain active but who are not actively practicing real estate.

Whether a 20 year veteran or a new licensee, the Illinois License Act of 2000 mandates that a license must be operative (sponsored by a broker) to remain active.

Inland Real Estate Network, Inc. offers the ideal sponsorship of your license if:

- You are not currently looking for a full-time real estate career
- You have obtained your license for personal real estate investment knowledge
- You have obtained your license for employment growth potential
- You have left a position in real estate and rather than let your license expire, you need a sponsoring broker

Why join Inland Real Estate Network, Inc.?

- Earn additional income
Refer potential buyers and sellers through the Network to qualified professionals anywhere in the country
- No Board or MLS fees
As a member of the Network there are no MLS fees or industry association dues required
- No pressure to transact business
Inland Real Estate Network was specifically created to meet the needs of licensees who did not want to give up their license because they did not make selling real estate their primary career
- Generous referral rate
Network members retain 80% of all referral income they produce, a rate well above other referral companies
- Low annual membership fee
Inland Real Estate Network's annual fee is only $25.00. Compare to other companies charging $100 per year
